ANNUAL REPORT

OF THE

ATTORNEY GENERAL

OF THE

STATE OF MICHIGAN,

FOR

THE YEAR 1879.

BY AUTHORITY.

LANSING:
W. S. GEORGE & CO., STATE PRINTERS AND BINDERS.
1880.

REPORT.

STATE OF MICHIGAN,
ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OFFICE,
Lansing, January 1, 1880.

To His Excellency CHARLES M. CROSWELL, Governor:

In obedience to the requirements of law, I beg leave herewith to submit my annual report.

The suits to which I attended on behalf of the State in the Supreme Court are fully set forth in Schedule A, annexed to this report.

Schedule B is a report of chancery cases, instituted during the past year, in which the State was interested.

Schedule C contains a list of cases in which proceedings in the nature of quo warranto were authorized.

An abstract of the reports of the several prosecuting attorneys throughout the State, as made to this office, is presented in the appendix.

The case of The Empire Transportation Company vs. The Auditor General, pending in the Ingham Circuit, involving the constitutionality of Public Act No. 173, Laws of 1873, has been discontinued by the plaintiff.

The case of The State vs. The Lake Shore and Michigan Southern Railroad Company, for taxes, now pending in the Wayne Circuit Court, will likely be brought to trial at the ensuing March term of court.

Very respectfully,
OTTO KIRCHNER,
Attorney General.

SCHEDULE A.

JANUARY TERM, 1879.

1. Stephen Boody vs. The People. Error to Eaton Circuit. Continued on motion of attorney for plaintiff in error.

2. Joseph A. Shearer vs. The People. Error to Montcalm Circuit. Shearer had been convicted of a simple assault and battery and sentenced to six months imprisonment. The Court reversed the judgment as to three months of the imprisonment.

3. The People ex rel. Gratiot County vs. The People. Continued.

4. William Baker vs. The People. Error to Huron Circuit. Argued by Plaintiff in Error, and Brief submitted on behalf of the People by Hon. Richard Winsor, Prosecuting Attorney for Huron County. Judgment reversed and new trial ordered.

5. Anthony Bachman vs. The People. Error to Berrien Circuit. Judgment reversed and new trial ordered.

6. Porter A. Shepard vs. The People. Error to Oakland Circuit. Argued and submitted.

7. The County Treasurer of Houghton County vs. The State Treasurer. The questions presented by the record were of some public importance, but inasmuch as the case was disposed of by the Court on purely technical grounds no statement of it need here be given. Mandamus denied.

APRIL TERM.

1. The People vs. Gorden. Exceptions before judgment from Recorder's Court of Detroit. Exceptions sustained and Court below advised to discharge the prisoner and discontinue prosecution.

2. Orson Flagg vs. The People. Error to Benzie Circuit. Judgment reversed and prisoner ordered to be discharged.

3. Attorney General vs. The Police Justice of Detroit. The Prosecuting Attorney for Wayne County offered to make complaint to the Police Justice of of the City of Detroit, charging one Abel, who had exercised the office of ward collector of the 12th ward of the city, with the embezzlement of county funds. The Police Justice was of opinion that under the provisions of the charter of the city, the Recorder's Court alone could take cognizance of the case in the first instance, and he therefore refused to receive the complaint. The Court granted a peremptory writ of mandamus commanding the Police Justice to entertain the complaint in accordance with the prayer of the petition.

4. In the matter of William Amidon. Amidon was sentenced by a Justice of the Peace to imprisonment in the State Reform School until he should attain the age of twenty-one years. This sentence was excessive and void under the Act of 1877. The prisoner was discharged.

5. Henning vs. The People. Error to Washtenaw Circuit. Judgment affirmed.

6. Porter A. Shepard vs. The People. Error to Oakland Circuit. This case was argued and submitted at the January term. Shepard had been convicted of maintaining a public nuisance in the city of Pontiac. The court below imposed upon him a fine and ordered the sheriff to abate the nuisance by destroying Shepard's mill-dam. The conviction and fine were sustained, but it was held that under the Statute the Court had no power to order the destruction of the dam.

7. The People vs. Arnold alias Houghton. Exceptions before judgment from Recorder's Court of Detroit. Argued for the People by Assistant Prosecuting Attorney for Wayne County. Exceptions sustained and Court advised to grant a new trial.

8. The People vs. Gordon. Exceptions before judgment from Recorder's Court of Detroit. Argued for the People by Assistant Prosecuting Attorney for Wayne County. Exceptions sustained and prisoner ordered to be discharged.

JUNE TERM.

1. Jefferson Hull vs. The People. Certiorari to St. Joseph Circuit. Hull had been adjudged to be the father of an illegitimate child. The Court ordered him to pay a certain weekly sum for the maintenance of the child, but the order did not designate the person to whom the money should be paid. For this defect, the proceedings were quashed.

2. Patrick Quinlan vs. The People. Error to Sanilac Circuit. Defendant pleaded guilty to an information which charged him with selling beer on a day of general election, contrary to the Statute. The plea was entered at the July term, 1878. It was thereupon ordered that sentence be suspended till the following term and that defendant enter into his personal recognizance in the sum of $100. In April, 1879, although two terms had intervened without taking any action against him, the defendant was sentenced. The sentence was clearly erroneous, according to the rule established in Weaver vs. The People, 33 Mich., and the judgment was reversed without argument on either side.

3. Ex. rel. Houghton County vs. The Auditor General. Petition for a mandamus to compel the Auditor General to draw his warrant for $37,092.44 claimed to be due Houghton County on the annual settlement after the October tax sales.

Houghton County did not make her return of lands delinquent for non-payment of taxes for the years 1870 and 1871 within the time required by law, and the returns were rejected by the then Auditor General, Hon. William Humphrey. No steps were taken by Houghton county until the April term of 1877, when an application was made for a mandamus to compel Auditor General Ralph Ely to credit Houghton county with the amount of taxes returned as due upon the delinquent lands. The Court (ex rel. Houghton County vs. The Auditor General, 36 Mich., p. 271,) held that the returns had been properly rejected, and that Houghton county was not entitled to the credit asked for, and the mandamus was denied.

Subsequently, however, Auditor General Ralph Ely received the returns and gave to Houghton county a credit for the amount of taxes returned as unpaid.

The lands were advertised for sale, and were afterwards returned to the Auditor General's Office as sold to the State. The amount of these bids was credited by the Auditor General to Houghton county. An application was then made to Auditor General W. Irving Latimer, who had succeeded Hon. Ralph Ely in the office, for a warrant on the Treasurer for the amount so credited to Houghton county. The Auditor was advised not to issue his warrant. On his refusal to do so, this proceeding was instituted.

The Court held that the sale of the tax lands under the circumstances was void, and that Auditor General Latimer properly refused to issue his warrant. Mandamus denied.

4. The County of Clare vs. The Auditor General. Appeal in chancery from Ingham Circuit. The counties of Clare, Midland, and Mecosta were the only parties really interested. The Auditor General was merely a nominal defendant.

5. The People ex rel. The Attorney General vs. The Police Justice of the City of Detroit. Petition for mandamus to compel the Police Justice to entertain a complaint, made by one Darling, under section 7190, Compiled Laws of 1871, against one Hurst for a fraudulent disposal of real estate. Held that the section applies only to fraudulent transfers of personal estate and that the Attorney General was not a proper relator.

6. The People vs. Alexander T. Hurst. Exceptions from Recorder's Court of Detroit. Exceptions sustained and new trial granted.

OCTOBER TERM.

1. James Stuart alias James O'Brien vs. The People. Error to Superior Court of Grand Rapids. Judgment reversed and new trial granted.

2. John O'Hara vs. The People. Error to Alpena Circuit. Argued on behalf of plaintiff in error. No argument in support of conviction. Judgment reversed and new trial ordered.

3. Henry Malliatt vs. The People. Error to Manistee Circuit. Argued on behalf of The People on Brief of Louis Morris, Esq., Prosecuting Attorney of Manistee County. Judgment of Court below affirmed.

4. James Willetts vs. The People. Error to Livingston Circuit. Judgment below reversed and prisoner discharged.

5. William Frye vs. The People. Error to Mason Circuit. Judgment below affirmed.

6. Oscar Semon vs. The People. Certiorari to Van Buren Circuit. Proceedings below sustained.

7. The People vs. John L. Knapp. Exceptions before judgment from Lenawee Circuit. Exceptions sustained and Court advised to grant a new trial.

8. William Cummin impleaded with, etc., vs. The People. Error to Wayne Circuit. Judgment below affirmed.

9. William K. Printz vs. The People. Error to Wayne Circuit. Judgment below affirmed.

10. Ex rel. Ayers vs. The Board of State Auditors. Argued and submitted and not determined.

11. Ex rel. Cook vs. The Attorney General.

12. Ex rel. Yates vs. The Attorney General.

Both cases were applications for mandamus to compel the Attorney General to file information in the nature of a quo warranto against the Detroit, Grand Haven and Milwaukee Railroad Company, under sections 7085 and 7086 of the Compiled Laws of 1871. The Attorney General declined to proceed against the railroad company for the reason that the joint committee on the judiciary and railroads, at the last session of the Legislature, had reported in favor of the legal organization and corporate existence of the company, and that the relators had no rights in the premises which could be vindicated by the proceeding. The Court declined to issue even an order to show cause why a mandamus should not issue as prayed for, but peremptorily denied the petition.

13. Ex rel. Cook vs. The Attorney General. Petition for mandamus to compel the Attorney General to file an information in the nature of a quo warranto against the Police Justice of Grand Rapids. The Court held that the Police Justice was in the lawful exercise of his office and denied the writ.

14. Ex rel. Auditor General vs. The State Treasurer. Argued and submitted by Hon. Geo. V. N. Lothrop for the Auditor General, and by the Attorney General for the respondent. The Court ordered the case to be put on the docket for next term for further argument.
